

NO PREARRANGED ABSENCES ALLOWED DURING EXAM DAYS UNLESS APPROVED BY THE ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

PREARRANGED ABSENCE FORM

- A. Students must apply for the privilege of using the prearranged absence days through the attendance office. They will be given a prearranged form to be signed by their teachers and parents. This completed form must be turned in 2 school days prior to the date of the prearranged absence or it will be recorded as unexcused.
- B. The building principal or his designate has the authority to grant up to five (5) days of excused absence per year for the following types of prearranged absence:
1. College Visits
 2. Career Education Visitations
 3. Participation in regional and/or national contests or awards not endorsed by the I.H.S.A.
 4. Family vacation-qualified by the phrase "accompanied by a parent"
 5. Special religious events. (For additional information regarding this category, contact the Deans' Office.)
 6. Those other circumstances as determined by the Administration.
- C. Excused absences resulting from approved preplanned absence(s) shall be limited to 5 days per year and may not be cumulative. Any date which is in excess of these 5 days is considered to be unexcused (NO MAKEUP PRIVILEGES).
- D. A student will not be eligible for an excused absence if the request for a preplanned absence covers the final week of the quarter and/or semester.

As parent of _____, I understand it is the sole responsibility of my son/daughter to secure and complete all assignments when any prearranged absence is approved: teacher assistance should not be expected. I also understand that absences from school could affect the academic achievement of my son/daughter. Students can be withdrawn from class when they have accumulated 18 absences.
